Vintage. 1 Paperback(s), 2004. soft. Book Condition: New. (Finalist for the 2004 Whitbread Novel Award and the 2005 Commonwealth Writers Prize) In a small Anatolian village, early in the 20th century, Philothei, a Christian girl of legendary beauty, has been courted almost from infancy by Ibrahim the Goatherd, while her brother Mehmetçik teaches his best friend Karatavuk how to write Turkish in Greek letters, and Karatavuk's father Iskandar makes pots and invents proverbs. But the Ottoman Empire is collapsing, and even this peaceful place, where Greeks and Turks, Christians and Muslims, have lived and worked together for centuries, will succumb to the wrenching spasms of religion and nationalism born in the wake of the Great War and the rise of Kemal Atatürk. As he did in Captain Corelli's Mandolin, Louis de Bernières traces the seismic shifts of nations through the lives and relationships of those caught in their tumult. 625.
