By Courtney Elsberry

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . When a teenager is reported missing, Officer Jeff Biggs is reluctant to name it as a kidnapping. He tries to pass it off as nothing more than a child running away from home. The teenager's mother, Tina Young, makes every effort to make sure they know that her daughter is not a runaway. Jeff finally agrees to begin a search for the girl. Although he does begin the search for the teen, he is not putting all he has into it. And yet, something is off. More kids are being reported missing and bodies of children are beginning to show up. Every child is kidnapped from the same school - Ellepath Community Schools. When the police finally put out a press conference for the entire nation to see, Detective Kathy Baker, the best detective in the entire country of America, decides it's time she offers her help. Anger flares inside of Kathy as she comes upon the realization that the local police had barely made any sort of progress on the case. It's almost as...
