Reviews

This publication will be worth purchasing. It really is written in simple terms instead of difficult to understand. It's been designed in an exceptionally simple way and is particularly only right after I finished reading this ebook in which basically modified me, alter the way I believe.

PROVERBS AND SAYINGS OF THE RABBIS, LEGENDS, ETC. PRAY to God for mercy until the last shovelful of earth is cast upon thy grave. Open not thy mouth to speak evil. The horse fed too liberally with oats becomes unruly. Do not to others what you would not have others do to you. Few are they who see their own faults. The house which opens not to the poor will open to the physician. Hospitality is an expression of Divine worship. Rather skin a carcass for pay, in the public streets, than lie idly dependent on charity. The place honours not the man, tis the man who gives honour to the place. If a word spoken in its time is worth one piece of money, silence in its time is worth two. If certain goods sell not in one city, try another place. If thou tellest thy secret to three persons, ten know of it . When love is intense both find room enough upon one board of the bench; afterwards they may find themselves cramped in a space of sixty cubits. When wine enters the head the secret flies out. Be yielding to thy superior; be affable towards the young; be friendly with all mankind. Say little and do much. He who is loved by man is loved by God. Do not live near a pious fool. * Descend a step in choosing thy wife; ascend a step in choosing...
