Westhill Publishing, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Finally, the novel about everything you wished they would have told you about love but somehow neglected to mention, until now! Venture with Miles Graham, a once easy going playboy, whose life is forever altered after his surreal romance with the enigmatic April Nesbitt ends in devastating heartbreak. He embarks on a journey that s relatable to anyone who s ever enjoyed love beyond belief only to find they re unable to believe that it s over! This is the tale for anyone who has ever heard (or recited) the words We need to talk, followed by, you re a great guy (or girl) but., or had a hole in their heart the size of the Caspian Sea that no words of wisdom could fill. This novel is for every one of us who has been there before in a one sided fight where you re heart has had it s a--kicked. It s the layperson s and male response to books such as Eat, Pray, Love, as most people don t possess the luxury of jet setting to exotic lands or consuming gourmet foods post a devastating breakup. In contrast they have the reality of the local bar to drown their sorrows at, friends who eventually grow exhausted from hearing for what seems like the millionth time about an ex they can t get over, and work they have to strain through the next day even as their life resembles the perfect picture of misery. It is packed with the hilarity, honesty, and lessons we all receive on the voyage of mending a broken heart once love has cast us adrift and been relegated to the...
