Excerpt: . . . when it was in their Power to pursue. and hang them. And they had all the Reason in the World to believe, that a Government, that had armed such Men of desperate Fortunes and Resolutions, was so far from protecting them, which is the only End of all Government, that on the contrary it designed to destroy both their Lives and Fortunes. The latter of which, as will appear by the Sequel, they in a manner intirely lost. The Support and Happiness of a Kingdom consists chiefly in the equal and impartial Administration of Justice; and that depends on the Choice of fit and duly qualified Persons for filling the Courts, and executing the Laws; by those Laws no Man was capable of being a Judge, who had not taken the Oath of Supremacy. -The Judges he found on the Bench had taken it; but...
