Tori's life is too complicated. Her Dad and his girlfriend Erika elope. Mom is dating her boss, Rob Wiley. Her step sib Ashley makes two dates on the same night with a basketball star and Michael, Tori's secret crush. She begs Tori to take her place with Michael. Tori can't resist and goes out with him on a magical date. Tori and her best friend Amanda can't wait to get belly button piercings. They go to a tattoo parlor and have the piercings done with hilarious results. Rob threatens Tori that her life won't be so pleasant once he is her stepdad. He snoops through her things and finds the kit she uses on her new piercing and says he'll tell her mother. Tori realizes that Rob is dangerous, but can she convince her mother that he's not right for her? And what about Kai, Tori's jogging partner who gives her her first kiss? Can Tori ever learn to cope with two blended families in her...
