Table of Content : Executive summaryAssessment and recommendationsChapter 1. Supporting the recovery and rebalancing the economy-Getting back to balance -Understanding the weaknesses of previous fiscal rules could help create a robust framework -Structural reforms should support growth and rebalancing -The UK banking sector was severely affected by the crisis and further reforms are essential -The domestic financial regulatory and supervisory framework needs to be strengthened further-Implementation issues and further reforms-Annex 1. A1. Progress in structural reformChapter 2. Improving the functioning of the housing market -Recent developments in the housing market-Improving the efficiency and resilience of the housing marketChapter 3. Reforming education in England International test scores suggest that educational outcomes have not improved-Better targeted pre-schooling can support social mobility and increase educational efficiency - Efficiency in primary and secondary education is low and has fallen-The extensive focus on grades in the school system is a cause of concern-More attention to composition and quality of inputs could improve outcomes-Inefficient deprivation funding leads to underachievement among disadvantaged students-Strong reliance on admission based on residency hampers user choice-Supply must be more flexible if substantial user choice is to be exercised-Participation in upper secondary education is low-Higher caps on tuition fees should provide room for increasing the number of study places -Annex 3. A1. Determinants of PISA scores -Annex 3. A2. Estimation of wellbeing determinantsChapter 4. Climate-change policy in the United Kingdom-Rising to the climate challenge-Recent progress on emissions has been significant but a step...
