Excerpt: . . . 11 overseeing IT investments, avoiding duplicative efforts, preventing capability gaps, and ensuring that older and newer systems are compatible and interoperable. For example, Subparagraphs 5 (a) (3) requires the Department of Defense to track IT investments with an appropriate EVM project management system that shows accurate and reliable cost, schedule, and performance information. If DOD finds that investments deviate by 15 to 25 percent from the established baseline based on the EVM system, then DOD will be required to include information on troubled projects similar to civilian agencies as required under section 4. Subsection 5 (b). Cost, Schedule, and Performance Information Subsection 5 (b) mirrors subsection 4 and enhances current Title 10 significant and critical change planning and reporting requirements for the Department of Defense to make them consistent with requirements S. 920 establishes for civilian agencies. Section 6. IT SWAT Subsection 6 (a) establishes the purpose of the IT SWAT (...)
